

Terms of Service (Ultra-Pro)

1. Acceptance of Terms

By accessing this Platform, you agree to be legally bound by these Terms. If you do not agree, discontinue use immediately.

2. No Investment Representation

The Token is a utility-based digital asset. It does not represent equity, securities, or investment contracts, and no expectation of profit is derived from the efforts of others.

3. Regulatory Compliance

Users must comply with all applicable laws, including U.S. regulations. The Platform may restrict access based on jurisdiction.

4. User Responsibilities

Users are solely responsible for their actions, wallet security, and compliance with applicable laws.

5. Blockchain Risks

All blockchain transactions are irreversible. The Platform is not liable for losses due to volatility, errors, or third-party services.

6. Social Impact Fund Separation

All social impact funds are maintained in separate wallets and may be subject to delayed distribution based on milestones and verification.

7. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Platform disclaims all liability for damages, including loss of funds, data, or access.

8. Indemnification

Users agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Platform from any claims arising from misuse.

9. Termination

Access may be restricted or terminated at any time for compliance or risk reasons.

10. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by U.S. law and the State of New Jersey.
